

I feel allowing a customer the ability to retain his cellular phone number while changing service providers would be of great benefit to the consumer. Please require the cellular phone industry to provide this option to their customers.